Broke his Right Leg.

An old stonemason named Walters, who lives in North Wheeling, lost his balance and fell from a platform to the ground, a distance of about four feet, at the old Bradford house, in Bellairs, yesterday and broke his right leg. Walters is nearly seventy years of age and during the war suffered a wound in the right leg that never healed. The fracture sustained yesterday was at this wound and made it more aggravated, especially at his age. He was removed to his home in this city immediately after the accident.

A Quarryman Badly Hurt.

Fred Harmon had both legs broken while at work in McHenry's stone quarry, near Bellairs, yesterday, one of them in two places. He and John Kettie were the only two at work, and they split a huge stone with wedges, and in some way Harmon was caught and pinned to the ground amid a lot of broken stone, with the huge stone lying across his limbs. Kettie was unable to remove it, and the poor fellow lay in the broiling sun for nearly half an hour, pinned to the ground, before assistance enough to remove the huge rock could be had. When the rock was taken off it was found that his legs were badly mangled and both broken. He was removed to his home in the Fourth ward there, and the fractures reduced, and he is apparently getting along all right. He is a married man.

THE VOTE CANVASSED

And the Result of Saturday's Primaries Announced

BY THE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

The Official List of the Delegates to the County Convention, Candidates for County Commissioners and School Board Members—One Tie Settled and one Deferred.

A meeting of the Republican county committee was held last night to canvass the vote cast at the primaries last Saturday night. The vote was gone over, but the tie on a congressional delegate in Union district was deferred for future action. In the same district James McAdams and William J. Nesbitt were tied for candidate for member of the board of education, but Mr. McAdams withdrew, leaving Mr. Nesbitt a clear field. The vote as printed in Monday's INTELLIGENCER tallied with the official returns as made up last night with a few trifling exceptions.

Daniel Arndt's vote for delegate to the county convention from Washington district, was 191 instead of 91. James P. Maxwell, of Madison district, had 512 instead of 412, as has been printed.

Following is the official list of the delegates chosen to the county convention:

Washington district—Jas. H. Eddle, William McCormick, J. G. Kline, D. G. Morgan, William Muegge.

Madison—Jas. P. Maxwell, Myron Hubbard, C. A. Robinson, A. C. Davis, Alex. Forney.

Webster, W. R. Dudley.

Ritchie, W. W. McConnell.
Triadelphia, James F. Weeks, president, Charles Sample, member.

Richland, John B. Lyle and William Carter are tied for president; G. C. Smith is nominated for member.

Liberty, N. Murray, president; Abraham McColloch, member.

The interest in the outcome of next Saturday's convention naturally centres in the nominees for the house of delegates. For criminal judge only one name is heard mentioned, and that is Hon. T. J. Hargis. For the legislature a great diversity of timber is offered.

Among those named are Messrs. H. W. Schrebe, Jack Wright, Gus Medick, all of the Eighth ward; S. G. Smith, D. W. Martin, Capt. C. J. Rawling, Alex. R. Campbell, Ralph McCoy, J. C. Brady, W. F. Peterson, Abram Stamm, H. F. Behrens, W. R. Simpson, Myron Hubbard and one or two others, out of which list it certainly should be easy to get a strong and winning four.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

Result of the Annual Election for Directors and Officers.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Children's Home of this city was held at the Exchange bank yesterday. The committee appointed to conduct the annual election for officers reported that after advertising twice within two weeks an election was held on Thursday, the 21st instant, at the City Bank of Wheeling. Any person having contributed $5 to the home within a year past was a qualified voter. Fully three-fourths of all who thus contributed cast their ballots at the election, and the following is the result:

President, Henry K. List; first vice president, W. B. Simpson; second vice president, Louis C. Shill; secretary, Rev. A. J. Irey; treasurer, John K. List.

Directors, John C. Lynch, B. W. Peterson, Dr. R. H. Ballard, W. A. List, J. E. Hughes, G. L. Cranmer, Myron Hubbard, John J. Jones.

The new secretary, Rev. A. J. Irey, was asked to make up last year's report of the workings of the home, which will be published shortly.
